Message from the President

Dear members of the Lancaster Curling Club,

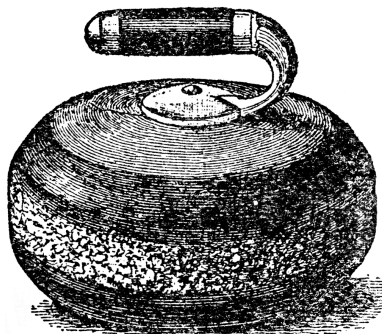

I am honored to serve as the new president of our esteemed club and am delighted to welcome our new and returning board members for the 2024/2025 season. Each of them brings a wealth of experience, dedication, and enthusiasm that will undoubtedly contribute to the continued success of our club.

I look forward to an exciting season ahead, filled with great games, camaraderie, and continued success. Our community's dedication and passion for curling make this club truly special, and I am committed to supporting and enhancing our shared experience. Together, let's uphold our traditions of sportsmanship and community while embracing new opportunities for growth and improvement.

With the leadership of our new board and your support, we anticipate a season filled with memorable moments and achievements on and off the ice. I am eager to work with all of you to ensure that our club remains a welcoming and vibrant place for curlers of all levels.

BonSpiel!

Nigel Carlisle

Wine & Art Appreciation Night

Our first ever Wine & Art Appreciation Night, held at the club on Sunday, June 23rd, was such a lovely evening! Our guest sommelier, Yohann, was the perfect host, educating us on the history & nuances of eight different wine selections, ranging from a sassy sparkling white to a full-bodied California cabernet. Linda Sinfield, our chef extraordinaire, prepared exquisite food pairings to complement each of the wines (and outdid herself with the cod cakes and duck confit)!

A very special part of the evening was seeing all of the amazing talent on display: quilts, paintings, poems, drawings, hooked rugs...and poetry! Our guests had the pleasure of viewing the artistic side of our curling family and were treated to two poetry recitations from our funny & talented Marion Newman.

Thanks to all who came out to the event and to everyone who volunteered and made the night so special. A special thanks to Maggie Doonan for helping in the kitchen; James & Leanne for bartending; Rick Rolin, Kilian McCormick & Patti McLeod for helping with the set-up; and Gary Sklivas for his help with the clean-up.
